III.Call to the audience

Discussion notes	Karen Dineen provided an update regarding purchasing of playground materials for lunch recess. She is pricing different approved vendors to find the best deal to purchase what is needed within the current budget. She discussed getting a net and volleyballs.
Conclusions	The volleyballs and nets will be put on hold until we have more information from Storm Water Concepts who have a possible plan that will add flood control with landscaping to the north playground.
Action items
She will continue to look and will purchase when an in budget, appropriate set of equipment is found.

resolution -

item title	Parent Involvement
discussion notes	In Place: Marquee, newsletters, open house/title 1 night, conferences, parent involvement survey (no response) Challenges: Parents are overwhelmed and do not know the options for involvement. Parents are still in the habits from isolation – our newest families have not had experiences with school involvement. Volunteers (including parents) need to complete the online volunteer form which is through the TUSD hiring site. Ideas: Personal invitations from the principal and teachers - possibly a more personal survey or a “Did you know?” information letter Sign in sheets for the upcoming ELA/STEM Event and Winter Concert. Also available - Information about possible upcoming events: Book Fair, Career Day, Love of Reading, Culture Day, Morning Meet and Greet like “Winter Break Treats”, “Welcome 2024”, “Bring Your Grown-up to Breakfast” Availability of volunteer form completion assistance Get the news out now for parents to be able to plan: “Count Down to Love of Reading Week” – request readers and possibly have Book Fair

Resolution

VII. Submission of items for next agenda.

Sports equipment update

Storm Water Concepts update

Parent Involvement – Love of Reading

Update inquiry to facilities

VIII. The meeting was adjourned at 3:45 p.m. by Charlena Dolan, seconded by Tusamba Nefwani. Motion approved.

Next Meeting: January 31st, 2024 3:00
